

FOOTHILLS BAR ASSOCIATION OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY

Service, Professionalism, Collegiality

February 2020

A NOTE FROM FBA'S 2020 PRESIDENT, ANDREA SCHNEIDER

Growing up in Des Plaines, Illinois in the 1960s and 70s, there were four things I knew: I'd be a mom. I'd live in California. I'd be an attorney, and I'd be president. So here I am. President of the Foothills Bar Association. Click on: <https://www.andreaschneider.us/blog/2020/january/foothills-bar-association-installs-attorney-schn/> to read more about the 57 year-old association.

My father and grandfather were very chauvinistic. My grandfather believed that women should focus on cooking and cleaning. My grandma prided herself on being the best cook. And for their 20th wedding anniversary, he gave her a pendant inscribed, "Thank You for Your Meritorious Service". She was pleased. I wouldn't have been. You? I guess they knew that cooking and cleaning weren't going to be my thing. My father and grandfather were very supportive of me going to college and law school. My oldest brother always insisted that I liked to argue, and I would get into an argument with him about not liking to argue. I finally realized I would just concede, rather than argue and prove his point.

**The above is an excerpt from the speech I gave when I was sworn in as president two weeks ago. The picture below is our new board for 2020.

We look forward to hearing from you about how we can make this association even better. I hope to see you at one of our upcoming events. Feel free to contact me at 619) 518-0476 or AndreaAttorney@gmail.com with any questions.
